Who is the Diploma in Trauma-Informed Practice for?

The Level 4 Trauma-Informed Practitioner for Social Workers and Therapists provides learners with the opportunity to enhance their knowledge and skills when working with families whose children have experienced early-life trauma and have complex needs.

This qualification aims to support the long-term success of families in fostering and adoption and will promote strong working partnerships between social work teams, therapists, and parents.

Qualification Content

The Level 4 Diploma in Trauma-Informed Practice consists of ten units:

- Trauma-Informed Practice: Understanding and Supporting Children and Families
- Understanding behaviour as a mode of communication
- The Therapeutic Parenting Approach
- Understanding and Addressing Unmet Needs in Children through Therapeutic Parenting and Trauma-Informed Care
- The link between early life trauma and offending behaviour in later life
- Navigating Transitions: Trauma-Informed Support for Children During Visitations and Planned Moves
- Collaborative Resilience: Trauma-Informed Practices and Compassionate Teamwork
- Therapeutic Approaches: Enhancing Child Well-being and Family Stability

Mode of Learning

To achieve The Level 4 Trauma-Informed Practice, learners will complete a combination of in-person training, live online training and units of study through our online learning platform, which comprises video-based tuition and knowledge checks throughout to enable learners to complete the end-of-unit assessments.

Learners will receive tutor and peer support through a forum on the learning platform. A handbook, including all relevant information, will also be provided at the start of the course.

Training Days

There are 6 training days that learners need to attend to complete the qualification. These include both in-person and live online training. Further details will be provided upon enrolment.

Qualification Benefits

This qualification helps equip social workers and therapists with the essential knowledge of trauma-informed practice and provide them with the strategies to assist parents in promoting family stability.

Certification

This qualification is certified by The Centre of Excellence in Child Trauma (CoECT). Once completed, learners will receive a certificate from The Centre of Excellence in Child Trauma. Other accreditations may be added in due course.
